Hello, Anita.

Thank you for your E-mail. It was a pleasant surprise to find you are getting married on October 27. Congratulations!

My wife and I would like to give you a wedding gift. Do you have a wish list on a wedding registry by any chance? If so, please let us know which site it is. If there is no registry, we will think of something useful for your new life before your wedding day.

I remember you visited us here in Japan three years ago. We took you to a Japanese restaurant for sushi and had a wonderful time.

When we visited you in Australia, we also spent a great time with you. Thank you for your hospitality.

I wish we could go to your wedding ceremony. However, my health condition does not allow us to do so. I feel sorry we miss one of the greatest events in your life.

Lastly, please give our best wishes to your parents. I will send them an E-mail as (A).

Your Japanese parents,

Toshi & Yasuko
